Rep. James Dunnigan, Utah State Legislature

Jim Dunnigan is a member of the Utah House of Representatives from Salt Lake County (elected 2002). He serves on the Business and Labor Committee as Chairman and on the Health System Reform Taskforce as Chairman.

In 2011 he has presented to the National Institute of Medicine regarding Federal Healthcare Reform's essential benefits and to the Hilltop Institute in Washington, D.C. regarding Utah's Health Exchange.

He is a member of the CHIP (Children's Health Insurance Plan) advisory board and has served on several legislative Task Forces including;
Healthcare, Income Tax, High Risk Health
Insurance Pool (HIP) and the Covered at Work Advisory Board.

He received the 2010 Small Business Champion of the Year Award from the NFIB.

He is a member of the National Association of Health Underwriters President's Council.